

The Missouri Red Angus Association

Citrix Go-To Meeting March 1, 2016

Attendees: Mark Garges, Kelly Massey, Scott Liebhart, Matt Boatright, Dan Lacy, David Dick, Pat McCarty, Buck Massey, Jim Humphrey, Randy Meyer

Updates on Bulls at Brickhouse Per Dwight:

- ultrasounds on Monday 2-29-16
- EPDs will not be updated by sale date
- has not heard anything back on 50K
- pictures to happen on Monday, March 7

David Dick - MO State Fair

- Have had schedule change in the middle of the week for the state fair
- Bring cattle in on Sunday Evening/Monday
- Show on Wednesday
- An opportunity to get something started for MORAA
- Display in the Charolais Barn - no other cattle in there
- No hoops to jump through to get the show slot - should take the opportunity
- Must have 30 head 3-year rolling average to keep the spot
- $500 first time around
- Fair takes care of plaques, ribbons and judges
- Need a contact person for the association
- We decide the order of the shows - junior show and open show, juniors automatically entered in the open show
- Entry Fee is $25

Who to contact to let juniors know about this opportunity?

- Mark Garges has contacts
- Jim Humphrey has contacts

Another location for Junior Shows

- Springfield, IL

 Most important to inform the juniors that the opportunities are out there.

Mark to make a phone call to ARA to speed up bull information

The Missouri Red Angus Association

Discussion:

- Board voted unanimously to propose an alternative option for Junior Leadership (rather than a voting junior representative spot on the board)
- Mark will bring MORAA booth to REDstock to represent MORAA
- Auction of Prime Ad spaces in MORAA catalog - Board votes no, keep it first come, first served
- Everything set up for MORAA sale - Kelly working on catalog alongside Focus, should be done mid-March
