$44,099.71 at Central Bank

$14,980.18 as of May 18 at Carroll County Bank

Goal is to close account after all checks received and new debit card received

Some is Junior $, Matt will have this figured out shortly

Secretary Report via Kelly Massey: All Memberships have been renewed except for 26 members/juniors

- Kelly send list to board, will call each person who has not renewed, already sent out multiple reminders via e-mail and regular mail.
- July 1 Deadline for Breeders Directory (ads, checks and membership renewals); 19 people have committed ads to it
- Still have outstanding checks owed to MORAA for bull pics in sale catalog from 3 Farms; Kelly sent out invoices via regular mail on May 15, 2016

Gregg Bailey - update on Junior All Breed Cattlemen's Show in Sedalia, MO

2 kids participated last year 2015, 7 kids this year 2016

Meeting after show led by MOJRAA President, August Bertz

Susan at NAJRAE in Illinois this week

2017 NAJRAE is in Stillwater, OK - looking for a home for the 2018 NAJRAE

Need to do some serious thinking, planning, etc before we jump in to that as volunteers to put on the entire convention; takes a lot of $ and dedication

For Reference: Jeffries Red Angus donated 3 heifers @ 6k each, pick of heifers @18k at their sale and Denver for Juniors

JC to check on where it is located in the next couple years

Awards for Juniors at MO State Fair and OEF - ideas presented by Gregg Bailey

Juniors (13 and under)

Seniors (14-21 years of age)

Director's Chairs - metal $50 / Chair = $300 + Cost of Embroidery

Oblong Metal Awards by LAG Industries

The Missouri Red Angus Association

Motion to approve $750 from Regular MORAA Account and $750 from Junior Account, 2nd, passed unanimously in favor by Board.

16 Oblong Metal awards from LAG Industries (8 for MO State Fair, 8 for OEF)
6 Chairs Embroidered from Missouri Embroidery
 Kelly to get the ball rolling on this (already established relationships with both companies)

Mixer at State Fair since it is our first time there for MORAA

- Pizza Party or something provided by MORAA
- Non-Alcoholic Beverages provided by MORAA (tea, lemonade, water)
- Mixer to take place before the show on Tuesday or after, Tuesday evening.
- Good way to network
- Depends on release time of cattle - Gregg checking on this

2017 MORAA Bull Test Update per Mark:

1 Bull came in from Crown Reds in Richland, MO

MORAA Field Day

- September 3 at Brickhouse Farms
- Kelly will advertise on Facebook and already listed on MORAA Website

Big Thank You to Dan Lacy - Provided prizes for MO Cattlemen's Show in Sedalia, MO on June 11.

- Cooler - Champion
- Feed Pan - Reserve
- Brushes for all kids who participated

Matt Boatright - suggestion for 2017

- Discuss sponsorships for shows at the 2017 Annual MORAA Meeting
- Better planning for next year, gives members another chance to participate

-Bud Thomas knows someone at SOMO Farm Supply who sponsors events and helps to get their name out.

No other business to discuss. Meeting adjourned.
